

YEC Tennessee 2025

April 2025

As I watched and listened to Ryan preach the Gospel and call students to respond to salvation and a surrender to Ministry I just thanked my God! I'm grateful for Ryan as a friend, ministry partner, and incredible Gospel Communicator. What an absolute joy to see lifechange happen right before my eyes.

I can honestly say that my relationship with Ryan started several years ago at Youth Ministry Conclave in Chattanooga, TN. I was befriended by this ministry Team that joined our Conference and they blessed me with some nice gifts. Because of the commitment to our Conference over the years, I wanted to make sure I connected with Ryan and wanted to support him as he cared for Youth Leaders from all across our Nation. This blossomed into a genuine friendship.

My relationship with Ryan has been more than just a ministry partnership but a true friendship. He is a person of trust and compassion. Through some very difficult seasons in my life, Ryan has abundantly checked up on me and cared for my family. Frequent calls, texts, and opportunities to visit with each other at events has more than proven his grace and love. It's a pure joy to have a friend that so closely walks with Jesus.

The thing I love most about Ryan is his love for the Word of God and his communication of the hope of Christ. He is one of the top preachers I've been able to hear and watch in action. To put someone on a stage is not something I take lightly, but there is zero hesitation for me to have Ryan be the one to share Jesus! He has a gift to preach and knows how to draw the net... for that I'm grateful.
